

Parental Complaints Procedure (Revised 2024)

Introduction

St. Enda's National School recognises that parents/legal guardians, hereinafter called parents/guardians, are the primary educators in a child's life and as such, from time to time, concerns may arise about which they may need to engage with our school. It is expected that engagement will be timely, courteous and resolution focused to ensure that the important relationship between the parent/guardian and the school can be preserved and respected. It is expected that all parties concerned will engage proactively.

This Parental Complaints Procedure (Revised 2024), hereinafter called the Parental Complaints Procedure, has been formulated by the Board of Management, Staff and Parents Association of St. Enda's to meet its obligations under the Education Act, 1998 to provide procedures to address concerns that may be raised by a parent/guardian.

In 2023, the Parental Complaints Procedure was revised and agreed by the Irish National Teachers' Organisation (INTO) and the management bodies of primary schools. The management parties to this agreement are the Catholic Primary Schools Management Association (CPSMA), the General Synod Board of Education of the Church of Ireland, Educate Together, An Foras Pátrúnachta, Muslim Primary Education Board, and the National Association of Boards of Management in Special Education (NAMBSE). This revised procedure came into effect on 1 January 2024.

Rationale

The purpose of this Parental Complaints Procedure is to facilitate the resolution of concerns where they may arise in an agreed and fair manner. The purpose of the revised procedure is for a parent/guardian to engage constructively with the school where a concern arises and to have it addressed at local level in an efficient manner, in the best interests of all parties.

This Parental Complaints Procedure provides parents/guardians and teachers with a structured and agreed format with which to seek resolution to grievances and complaints which can arise, from time to time, in schools. Based on the principles of fair procedures, the intention at each stage of the procedure is to provide a format for both parties to explore a resolution at the earliest opportunity.

Relationship to School Ethos

In St. Enda's, we aim to treat each child fairly and with respect. We realise the importance of each of our pupils feeling valued and respected. We also strive to promote positive home-school relationships and aim to enhance the self-esteem of everyone within our school community.

Aims

The aims of this Parental Complaints Procedure are:

To promote positive and trusting relationships between parents/guardians and St. Enda's.

To facilitate parents/guardians to express concerns they may have.

To assist the early resolution of parent/guardian concerns that may arise.

To minimise opportunities for conflict.

Procedural Points

The staged procedure (detailed below) is where every effort is made to resolve matters at the earliest possible stage. In most cases, concerns will be dealt with either informally or formally at the earlier stages of the procedure. Where it has not been possible to agree a resolution at the earlier stages, the procedure does allow for the escalation of the matter to the Board of Management. This procedure sets out, in four stages, the process to be followed in progressing a complaint and the specific timescale to be followed. It is expected the parties will follow each stage in sequence:

Where the term written correspondence is used, this refers specifically to a letter or email correspondence from a parent/guardian(s).

Only complaints about a teacher which are written and signed by a parent/guardian, and which relate to their own child, will be investigated.

Where a complaint raised by a parent/guardian is deemed by the Board of Management to relate to the following, this procedure will not apply:

Matters of professional competence and which are to be referred to the Department of Education;

Frivolous or vexatious complaints and complaints which do not impinge on the work of a teacher in a school; or Complaints in which either party has recourse to law or to another existing procedure.

In all circumstances, any form of written correspondence for the attention of the Board of Management must be supplied to the Chairperson of the Board of Management only. Any deviation from this could be deemed prejudicial and as acting outside the scope of this agreement.

Days in this procedure refer specifically to school days. A school day is a day on which the school is in operation. Holiday periods, school closures and leaves of absences are not counted as school days for the purpose of this procedure.

Group/collective complaints are not provided for and each parent/guardian raising a concern will be dealt with separately through this process.

The procedure is a domestic forum and accordingly, neither management nor the INTO intends that there would be legal representation at any stage.

Issues should be raised in a timely manner. It is in the best interests of the child that issues are raised to achieve early resolution at the earliest possible stage with the teacher, ideally while the pupil is in that teacher's class.
